

Message from the School

Military Road Early Learning Center is the second DCPS standalone early childhood school. Located at the historic Military Road School, this citywide PK3 and PK4 program will serve students from across the District of Columbia. At MRELC, children will build a solid academic and developmental foundation in an environment that supports creative exploration, nurturing relationships, and adventurous play. We commit to providing each child with experiences that foster a love of learning and stimulate intellectual curiosity.
