

Maya Angelou PCS - Young Adult Learning Center

Message from the School

The Maya Angelou PCS Young Adult Learning Center (YALC), an alternative-adult-education school, provides academic, workforce, and life skill programming to its students. YALC's program teaches students in the core competencies and sets no time limit to to prepare them to successfully complete their GED. While some students only seek GED credentials, others dually enroll in our Workforce Ready programs (including PACT, OSHA-10, and Cosmetology) that enable them with skills to succeed in life beyond our school program.

School Enrollment

The ever-enrolled count is the total number of students who are enrolled at any point during the school year; a student who attends a school for one day or 180 days is counted the same way. For this reason, the ever-enrolled count will always be larger than the audit count.

School Safety and Discipline

Information about discipline and school safety in DC, in accordance with the U.S. Department of Education’s Civil Rights Data collection, including suspensions and expulsions for students, school related arrests, reported incidents of violence, bullying, and harassment are available in the OSSE Discipline report and data files (<https://osse.dc.gov/page/data-and-reports-0>).

Attendance

Review information on attendance below, including in-seat attendance for all students (there is a separate measure of attendance for pre-K students, since pre-K is not compulsory), and the percentage of students chronically absent, meaning that they miss at least 10% of the school days for which they are enrolled throughout the school year at the school.
